Community College

PUEBLO HALL OF FAME NOMINATION FORM

In 1991, the Pueblo Hall of Fame was established to honor individuals who, by their extraordinary effort, have contributed to the betterment or enhancement of Pueblo.

- Nominees are considered on the basis of contributions in the following areas: all faces of education; business and labor; arts and humanities; philanthropy; government; law; science and technology; and health and human services.
- Persons selected for the Hall of Fame do not have to be Pueblo natives nor do they have to be current residents.
- Posthumous nominations are accepted but date of death should not exceed five years prior to nominations.
- Selections are made without regard to gender, race, religion, or national origin.

Inductees are selected in November of each year by a panel consisting of the community and trustees of the Pueblo Community College Foundation.

Inductees are honored at a banquet in the spring.

Portraits and brief biographies of the inductees grace the walls of the Fortino Ballroom, located in the Student Center of Pueblo Community College.

Nomination Requirements:

Nominations may be made from the community beginning April of each year. They must be received by the Pueblo Community College Foundation by October 30.

Nominations Must Include:

- A compelling narrative on the qualifications of the nominee.
- At least one (1) letter of support from persons who have pertinent information about the nominee, including friends, relatives, or business associates.
- At least three (3) references with name, relationship to nominee and complete contact information including reference name, address, city, state, zip, phone number with area code and email address.
